The interactive Better Hearing Exhibition, held at venues in your area, is an ideal opportunity for anyone to take advantage of a FREE Hearing Test, plus our Video Otoscope technology, which gives you the opportunity to see what's going on inside your ear via colour monitor. You can also see and try new hearing aid technology with live demonstrations of your ideal hearing aid and benefit from friendly and professional advice on improved hearing. Whether you have questions about how to care for your ears, you're worried that earwax may be affecting you or you'd like to find out how good or bad your hearing is then this Event is a simple way to find out.

Did you know?...

- There are more than 10 million people in the UK with some form of hearing loss - that's one in six of us!
- More than 70% of over 70 year olds and 40% of over 50 year olds have some form of hearing loss
- At least 4 million who don't have hearing aids would benefit from using them
- On average, it takes ten years for people to address their hearing loss, which can make the problem worse
- About one in ten adults in the UK have mild tinnitus

All hearing circumstances are different, so if you would like to hear more or have any questions, please call us today and book your appointment at our Better Hearing Exhibition.

Let's show you what's happening inside...

Our state-of-the-art video otoscope system can show inside your ear canal right up to your ear drum, all visible on the colour screen.

See inside your ear like never before, with no discomfort whatsoever!

Video otoscopy allows us to clearly visualise the ear canal and ear drum by projecting an image onto a computer monitor.

Using video otoscopy, we can see first hand any conditions such as the presence or build up of wax, or debris in the canal that may cause problems with your hearing.

Give your ears a clean bill of health!

Video otoscopy ultimately provides both patients and audiologists with a greater understanding and appreciation of what is happening inside your ear.

Unblock the problem with our FREE Wax Removal Clinic

It's not the most pleasant topics to talk about, but removing ear wax can help you hear better.

Earwax is a natural substance that keeps the inner parts of your ear free from dirt and debris. But excess levels of earwax can be unsightly, cause discomfort and affect your hearing. If you think you are suffering from a build up of earwax, come and see us at the Better Hearing Clinic Event and take advantage of our FREE Wax Removal Clinic with our trained Specialist Nurse Julie Murray.

She will check your ear canal for signs of excess wax using the Video Otoscope system shown above.

If there is a higher than normal level of wax Nurse

Murray will remove the wax straight away. The state-of-the-art equipment used is a ClearSound technique that requires no harsh syringing but removes any blockage with a specially designed pulse machine or a gentle wash with warm water.

Julie says, "The Better Hearing Clinic Event is the perfect opportunity to give your ears a complete health check and it may be something as simple as earwax that is causing your hearing problems."

We're happy to help you...

If you want to know more about how better hearing can be achieved - your local Hearing Aid Audiological experts will give you the best advice FREE. There is never any obligation and all the valuable information is available to you.

FREE AUDIOMETRIC TEST

Following a discussion on the history of your hearing a brief ear examination, our Hearing Aid Audiologist will carry out a free comprehensive hearing test. You are asked to respond to a variety of frequencies which allow the Hearing Aid Audiologist to plot your results on a graph. With the results explained, the test is over... it's as simple as that!

We often find it is a great help when testing your hearing to have a familiar voice with you. Part of our full hearing assessment is to present speech in what is called a Speech Clarity Test. A family member or close friend is ideal and they are free to help you with the hearing test as well as ask questions which you may not have thought of yourself.

Your Questions Answered...

Anything you are unsure of, simply ask our fully qualified Hearing Aid Audiologists

Q. How will wearing a hearing aid affect my hearing in the future?

A. Tests have actually shown that those people who wear their hearing aid regularly, strain less to hear and reduce the rate of further deterioration compared to people who need a hearing aid and do not wear it!

Q. My wife says the TV is too loud for her. I feel my hearing is OK so would a test be a waste of time?

A. No! It is never a waste of time. Our dispenser will always give you the best advice and will be happy to confirm if you have no hearing loss! Your test is completely without obligation and there is no pressure to have a hearing aid, just honest and sound advice.

Q. My friend has a NHS hearing aid which looks big and uncomfortable. If I needed a hearing aid, would it be the same size?

A. We can offer a whole range of small and discreet in-the-ear solutions and you will be advised on the best hearing solution for your hearing loss. As we are independent of any hearing aid manufacturer we can offer a wide selection of hearing aids and styles from small virtually invisible aids to power aids for more of a severe hearing loss.

Q. Do I have to pay for tests and service in the future?

A. No, our aftercare is free for life and there will never be a charge for re-testing, servicing or even home visits.

SEX CRIMES OF CHILDREN AGED 10

ACCUSATIONS INCLUDE RAPE AND ARSON

BY ANDY EDGEWORTH
andrew.edgeworth@jpress.co.uk
@AEdgeworthWIG

Children as young as six in St Helens have been recorded as committing a range of serious crimes, shocking new police figures reveal.

Youngsters under the age of criminal responsibility cannot be charged but police record offences if there is compelling evidence a child is responsible.

Startling figures obtained by the St Helens Reporter reveal officers investigated and recorded two children aged just six over criminal acts.

Police chiefs say they are unable to state the nature of crimes they committed.

However, they do say crimes recorded between 2011 and 2014 by children under 10 include arson attacks, common assault and battery, racial abusive, criminal damage, sexual abuse and rape.

Fourteen crimes were recorded by minors in St Helens over the three-year period.

St Helens Council's youth offending team declined to comment.

The age of criminal responsibility in England and Wales is 10 years old. This means that children under 10 can't be arrested or charged with a crime.

Murder charge for man, 23

A St Helens man has been charged with murder.

Michael Haigh, 23, of Lower Hall Street, St Helens, is accused of killed 25-year-old Ryan Kennedy of Norris Green on Saturday.

Mr Kennedy was died after he was hit by a 4x4 vehicle in the Gable View area of Liverpool.

He appeared at Liverpool Magistrates Court on Tuesday.

Robert Jansen, senior crown prosecutor with Mersey-Cheshire Crown Prosecution Service, said: "I have authorised Merseyside Police to charge Michael Haigh with murder.

"The charge follows the death of 25-year-old Ryan Kennedy in Norris Green in Liverpool on Saturday, 1 November.

"Mr Kennedy had been hit by a 4x4 type vehicle in Gable View in the area at 2.15pm. He was taken to hospital with serious injuries but unfortunately died shortly afterwards.

"It is very important that there should be no reporting, commentary or sharing of information online which could prejudice these proceedings."

Drivers sue council for car repair costs

By RICHARD BEAN
richard.bean@press.co.uk
@RBeanWIG

Scores of St Helens drivers have sued the council for pot- hole damage to their vehicles.

Town hall chiefs have faced or are currently negotiating claims from almost 50 motorists over the past three years due to the poor state of some of the authority's roads, a Freedom of Information sweep of local councils by insurance company LV has revealed.

Nationwide, the Liverpool-based insurance giant found that as many as 16 per cent of drivers have been left with damage to their vehicle in the past 12 months.

In St Helens the council has not, unlike some councils, slashed its maintenance budget to an "emergency only" level.

There were 20 claims for vehicle damage in 2012, 26 the following year but just three in the current financial year.

The Reporter's Chris Amery next to one of the borough's potholes

A council spokesman said that St Helens had a robust, efficient inspection and repairs policy, ensuring the risk from potholes is kept to a minimum.

He said: "Highway inspectors carry out regular inspections to a Code of Practice, reporting defects for repair, while the public also report locations to our contact centre."

"Permanent repairs are carried out during each visit - avoiding the repeat visits arising from temporary solutions."

Crucially though, the council's Highway Asset Management Strategy aims to prevent potholes appearing in the first place. Engineers analyse information from surveys and inspections - along with reports about potholes - and identify those parts of the network that need preventative maintenance measures.

"This slows down the wear and tear that leads to potholes."

Four roads to be re-named in honour of fallen war heroes

Roads in St Helens are to be re-named in honour of soldiers from the borough who won the Victoria Cross.

Councillors voted unanimously in favour of the motion - timed to co-incide with Remembrance Sunday - to honour Norman Harvey, John Molyneux, John Davies and Frederick Hall.

All four won the Victoria Cross - the highest honour which can be bestowed on members of the British Army.

Council bosses are yet to decide which roads should be re-named. The motion was put before council by Coun Seve Gomez Aspron, cabinet member for environment and neighbourhoods.

He said: "The centenary is of monumental significance and this council resolves to honour the occasion."

"The council wishes to place on record our thanks to all the organisations across the borough that are involved in the work commemorating the centenary."

"As a borough we have proud military links from both past and present. We are home to a number of uniformed brigades, cadet branches and a unit from the Army Reserves.

"Our commitment for the Armed Forces Day Parade and Remembrance services in all our towns and villages show how the council wishes to recognise and support the sacrifice made by the residents of our borough."

"Just as significant are those who are currently serving in the Armed Forces and our gratitude goes out to them too. Future links are readily being forged through the Armed Forces Covenant and the recently opened Centurion Centre."

■ Sgt John Molyneux was awarded the Victoria Cross for supreme gallantry shown leading a bombing party to clear a trench in Belgium. ■ Many of the enemy were killed and, when Sgt Molyneux bravely rushed towards the house, he became engaged in a hand-to-hand fight - before forcing the enemy to surrender. Cpl John Davies made history by becoming the first person to be awarded a VC posthumously - while he was still alive! ■ He was serving with the St Helens Pals during the First World War when they came under heavy fire and were in danger of being surrounded. After receiving orders to withdraw, Cpl Davies mounted a parapet with his gun - fully exposing himself to enemy fire - to buy time for colleagues to escape. Cpl Davies's parents were notified of his 'death' and his VC was awarded posthumously - before it was discovered that he was, in fact, still alive and had been taken prisoner.

St Helens firm halting spread of Ebola virus

BY ANDY MOFFATT
andy.moffatt@jpress.co.uk
@AndyMoffatt1

A St Helens company is helping to combat the spread of the deadly Ebola virus by creating the world's first latex-free surgical gloves.

Leanvation pioneered the medical innovation at its base in St Helens Chamber's Salisbury Street headquarters.

But its real impact is now being felt some 4,000 miles away in west Africa where medics are battling to treat and contain the killer disease.

Health chiefs in Sierra Leone and Liberia - two of the worst affected countries - have ordered 30,000 pairs with another 40,000 in the pipeline.

The latex-free gloves provide the same protection as latex products without the harmful proteins which can cause irritation and potentially life-threatening allergies to wearers.

Leanvation founders Dr Jonathan Day and Tony Downes

Because they are less likely to irritate skin, medics can wear the gloves for longer before they have to change them, reducing the risk of infection. Leanvation was founded by former healthcare executives Dr Jonathan Day and Tony Downes.

Managing director Dr Day said: "These workers are forced to wear gloves for prolonged periods in hot, sweaty conditions, posing the threat of latex allergy to themselves and their patients.

"Latex-free gloves remove this risk. Because they are much softer than comparative surgical gloves and contain fewer chemicals, they are also more comfortable and can worn for longer. This can dramatically reduce the need to remove and replace gloves, and the danger of wearers being exposed."

Natural rubber latex contains harmful proteins which can cause irritation.

Here come the girls...

BY TOM NIGHTINGALE
newsroom@lancspublications.co.uk
@StHelensReport

Meet the St Helens family proving that girl power is alive and kicking.

Headed by great-great gran Elizabeth Mason, there's now five generations of girls making up the Mason, Boden and Chadwick clan.

The latest addition to the family is six-week-old Scarlett McNally, who is 88 years younger than her great great grandmother Elizabeth Mason.

Also pictured are Scarlett's mum, 22-year-old Rebecca Chadwick, nan Louise Chadwick, 39, and great grandmother Janet Boden, 60.

Despite this long line of ladies though, the size of the family means that the men aren't totally outnumbered though.

Rebecca said: "We have a good mixture really.

"There are loads of men so we don't quite outnumber them.

"We knew Scarlett was going to be a girl before she was born but the sex didn't really bother us.

"We were just delighted she was born happy and healthy to be honest."

Wednesday marked six weeks since little Scarlett's birth and she has already spent a few girly days with her older generations. Her arrival was also quite special for the lady at the top of the pile, great grandmother Elizabeth.

Rebecca added: "She was absolutely made up. She absolutely adores her and loved meeting her for the first time."

■ Does your family match the Chadwicks for size and gender bias? If so, we'd love to hear from you. Either call our newsdesk on 01942 506276 or email greg.farrimond@jpress.co.uk

■ A St Helens man who has helped lead the town's hospitals for the past eight years has announced his retirement. Roy Swainson stepped down from his role as vice-chairman of St Helens and Knowsley Hospitals NHS Trust. Chairman Richard Fraser said: "I would like to thank Roy for his tireless support during his time at the trust. His commitment has been highly valued."

Helping out your OAP neighbours

■ Council public health officials are urging residents to keep an eye on older friends, neighbours and relatives as winter starts to tighten its grip. To help vulnerable residents, St Helens Council is distributing 5,000 winter survival packs in December through local libraries. Each pack includes a hat, scarf, thermal mug, torch, hot chocolate and calendar.

Remembrance Sunday

Hundreds gather to honour the

BY ANDY MOFFATT

@AndyMoffatt1

For Your Tomorrow We Gave Our Today, words that ring with greater poignancy than ever as St Helens gathered to mark Remembrance Sunday.

As the country marked 100 years since the outbreak of the First World War, thousands assembled to honour those who made the ultimate sacrifice.

In Victoria Square in the town centre, massive crowds, believed to be the biggest turn out in recent times, took up every vantage point around the war memorial.

The blast of a single marmoon echoed round the square to herald the Last Post and two minutes' silence.

Rev David Eastwood, of St Helens Parish Church, who led the service, said it was important to remember all those who sacrificed their lives for others and for those who continue to do so today.

He added: "In Luke 22:7-23 when Jesus took bread and the cup and said this was his body and his blood split for us and we were to 'do this in remembrance of him'. His sacrifice was the ultimate sacrifice - His death for us."

Dignitaries included St Helens Mayor Coun Geoff Pearl, council leader Barrie Grundewald and St Helens MP Shaun Woodward. They were joined by veterans, cadets and serving soldiers for the service.

While wreaths of poppies were laid at the foot of the memorial, the voice of local singer Sophia Ben-Yousef rang out across those standing solemnly to watch the ceremony, whose numbers included all ages.

Forces veteran Denis Whittle, 81, has attended every Remembrance Sunday service in St Helens since the mid 1950s.

He said: "Without doubt it was the biggest and best ever and the number of young people that attended pleased me in particular.

"All the local organisations were represented and Victoria Square was a sea of people.

"It was an occasion not to be missed."

Following the ceremony, crowds lined nearby streets to cheer as veterans, cadets, members of the armed forces, representatives of the emergency services and young people from scouts groups marched past.

Crowds also attended commemorations at memorials across the borough, including Newton, Billinge, Eccleston, and Rainhill. Ceremonies were also held in Prescot and Whiston.

Nursing ambitions to build medical bridges

BY ANDY MOFFATT
andy.moffatt@jpress.co.uk
@AndyMoffatt1

Most nurses spend their working days thinking about their patients needs - but few have to contemplate building the hospital itself.

But that was all in day's work for Paul Kelly after he swapped his job in the NHS for a stint working alongside US Navy personnel in sun-drenched California.

Capt Kelly, an army reservist from St Helens, was part of a group of British medics sent stateside to take part in a unique training exercise.

The 45-year-old, who works as a staff nurse on the major trauma ward at Fazakerley Hospital as well as serving as a nursing officer with the Army Reserves, travelled to San Diego where he participated in an exercise designed to test how the military perform in their new post-Afghanistan role.

Medics were charged with performing their duties in MASH-style mobile units. Often little more than tents, the units are in stark contrast to the purpose-built British military hospital at Camp Bastion in Afghanistan. They'll also be tasked with working alongside allies more regularly than during the Afghan campaign.

"Working with the Americans is a very different experience - they use different terms and techniques but we all share the aim of doing the best for our casualties," said Capt Kelly.

For Capt Kelly the role is also a family affair; his mum, dad and brother all served with the reserves before he embarked on his own 28-year career, which has seen him serve in The Falklands and Afghanistan.

He said: "This has been a great experience. There are things that I see and do in the Army Reserve that I wouldn't get anywhere else in civilian life.

"For example; a nurse in the NHS would never have to think about building their own hospital before looking after patients."

The 17 bed facility is home to a casualty reception area, an intensive care unit, an operating theatre, a ward and a laboratory as well as everything needed for staff to live on site. It is also capable of being sealed so as to treat casualties of chemical, biological and nuclear warfare.

Despite these complex demands, UK medics must be able to erect the hospital anywhere in the world within 16 hours and offer life-saving treatment immediately.

Police launch two-week gun amnesty

By ANDY MOFFATT
andy.moffatt@jpress.co.uk
@StHelensReport

Police in St Helens have launched a two-week gun amnesty in a bid to get firearms off the borough's streets.

The campaign includes antique, replica and decommissioned firearms.

It follows the success of a similar scheme last year which saw more than 200 weapons handed in across Merseyside.

Anyone who physically hands in a weapon will not face prosecution for possession although detectives say they may investigate the history and use of the firearm.

Det Supt Mike Shaw, from the Matrix Serious Organised Crime Team, said: "There have been changes in legislation in the last 12 months in relation to antique firearms and some people may also have replica or decommissioned firearms in their homes because they have inherited them, or have a genuine interest in collecting.

Police have launched two-week gun amnesty

"These weapons could be targeted by those involved in serious and organised crime who may see the opportunities of converting and using them in criminality.

"If you do own any weapons like this, think long and hard about the potential consequences. In the wrong hands, these guns can be reactivated and used to cause fear and intimidation, or even worse could be used to seriously injure, or kill, someone."

Weapons can be surrendered now at St Helens police station on College Street.

Anyone who can't get to a police station should call 101 and tell the operator they want to surrender a weapon as part of Operation Gresty.

The surrender does not provide immunity from prosecution for the life of a firearm. It is intended to provide an amnesty for possession.

Sex crimes of children as young as 9 revealed a criminal offence. However, they can be given a Local Child Curfew or a Child Safety Order.

Children under 10 who break the law regularly can sometimes be taken into care, or their parents could be held responsible.

If a child is given a Local Child Curfew it can last for up to 90 days and it can see children banned from being in a public place between 9pm and 6am, unless accompanied by an adult.

If a child has committed an offence or broken a Local Child Curfew, they can be placed under the supervision of a youth offending team. This is called a Child Safety Order.

The order normally lasts for up to three months, but in some cases it can last for up to 12 months.

If a child doesn't stick to the rules of an order, the court can consider if the child should be taken into care.

Last year saw the 20th anniversary of the kidnap and murder of James Bulger at the hands of two 10-year-olds, Robert Thompson and Jon Venables in Liverpool.

Despite numerous calls for a review of the age of criminality subsequent governments have ruled out any change to the status quo. But at 10, the minimum age of criminal responsibility (MACR) in England and Wales remains low by international standards, and pressure for an increase has been growing.

In December last year, the National Association for Youth Justice (NAYJ), which promotes the rights of young people in trouble with the law, launched a campaign to raise the MACR to 16, with a welfare-based approach for those any younger.

Criminalising children is counterproductive, say campaigners: it does little to prevent re-offending, makes it harder for them to secure employment in the future and exposes them to more serious offenders increasing the risk of further crime.

The United Nations Committee on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) has been warning since 1995 that the UK's threshold of 10 – set in 1963 – is incompatible with its obligations under the UN's convention on children's rights.

Fastest girl around 60 years ago

While most people slept one Saturday night, former convent schoolgirl Pauline Butler, of Grange Park, was behind the wheel of her Austin A40 speeding along Lancashire's roads and bouncing over cart tracks. The girl with a passion for fast cars was taking part in the Liverpool Motor Club sporting rally and covered some 180 miles between 11.30pm and the early hours of the following morning. She was the only girl among the 35 entrants - finishing third in the 1,500cc closed car class - and was awarded the ladies cup.

Union strike threat 40 years ago

Guerilla strikes were threatened at Pilkington if a union management meeting proved unsuccessful. The threat to hit the most vulnerable spots of the glass giant came as nearly 3,000 white collar workers walked out of their St Helens oices in a pay protest.

Union leader Bob Howard said: "We've asked our national executive council for approval for further action and the union is examining plans for guerilla stoppages in key sections." Negotiations were due to start in the Pilkington offices following a company invitation.

The law was on the trail of the aerosol kid and his sidekick Faz. Mayor of St Helens Patrick Gill offered £25 for the head of "Jedder", whose sprayed-on autograph had defaced walls, subways, lits and telephone kiosks all over St Helens. And just hours after the reward was offered, the bounty-hunters were already moving in! Councillor Gill said police had received several calls as to their identity. Jedder was believed to live in the Liverpool Road area of St Helens and Faz in the Eccleston area.

Two in court over rugby star attack

By CHRIS AMERY
chris.amery@jpress.co.uk
@ChrisAmery2

Two men accused of involvement in a violent incident which left rugby league star Sean Gleeson with a career-ending eye injury have again appeared in court.

The former Wigan Warriors player had only played six games for his new side Hull KR when the incident occurred outside a bar in Wigan and he has since retired because of injury.

Twenty-two-year-old Lee Jones, of Alder Avenue, Ashton-in-Makerfield, and Terrence Riley, 25, of Harrison Drive, Haydock, appeared before Liverpool Crown Court last Friday (November 7).

Jones had been accused of inflicting grievous bodily harm on Mr Gleeson and Riley with assault occasioning actual bodily harm.

But, because of evidential difficulties, those charges were dropped by the prosecution and instead an affray charge was put to each defendant.

Former rugby star Sean Gleeson suffered a serious eye injury.

Riley pleaded guilty to affray and Jones not guilty.

Jones is to face trial beginning on January 19 and Riley is to be sentenced after the trial.

Both men were further remanded on bail.

At around 4am on Sunday March 2, Gleeson was in a verbal altercation with three men at Ibiza Bar on King Street.

A fight erupted outside between two men before others in the group got involved resulting in the former Wigan player - who has also had spells at Salford, Wakefield and Hull KR - being punched in the face a number of times. The group left Gleeson in the road and ran away up King Street in the direction of Wallgate.

The victim was taken to hospital for treatment to a serious injury to his eye and eye socket.

Council leader Coun Barrie Grunewald

'No' to Mayor role as part of a devo deal

By JAMES ILLINGWORTH
james.illingworth@jpress.co.uk
@sthelensreport

A devolution deal for the Greater Liverpool area should not include a directly-elected mayor role, the leader of St Helens Council has said.

Mayor of Liverpool Joe Anderson has called this week for Merseyside to be given similar powers to those handed to Greater Manchester in the recent Devo Manc agreement.

The area will have its first directly-elected mayor as part of the deal without any sort of public consultation.

Leader Coun Barrie Grunewald told the Reporter: "First and foremost, I am a democrat so we must trust the people and let them have a say."

"At a time when politics is broken, the idea we can impose a new structure on people without their views being taken into account is ridiculous."

"Any move to impose a Metro Mayor would have to be accompanied by a referendum."

Greater Manchester's Mayor will be given greater powers over major issues such as transport and social care.

Coun Grunewald said the current combined authority for the Greater Liverpool region - established earlier this year - is sufficient to carry out any extra powers granted as part of a devolution deal.

Headed: "We are opposed to a Metro Mayor and in favour of giving more powers to the current combined authority, which we believe can be done via the current model."

Chancellor George Osborne said: "I'm up for Merseyside going down this path, so let's start the conversation."

Authorities in other northern cities are said to be keen to follow Manchester's lead."

Late night carbon monoxide drama

Firefighters were called after a carbon monoxide alarm activated at a property in St Helens.

Crews were called to a house near Bobbies Lane, Eccleston, at about 10.45pm on Sunday.

Fortunately, ToxiRAE equipment showed a reading of 180 carbon monoxide parts per million in the air in the property - a relatively low reading.

Firefighters ventilated the property, turned off the gas supply and requested an ambulance. They remained at the scene until about midnight.

A woman was checked over at the scene by paramedics but did not require hospital treatment.

Watch manager Peter Boland, of Whiston Community Fire Station, said: "The occupier had a carbon monoxide alarm in the property which had activated."

"Flu-like symptoms can be a sign of carbon monoxide poisoning. However, the woman appeared not to be suffering from effects of carbon monoxide poisoning in this case."

"The levels were relatively low. However, we advise that people have carbon monoxide alarms in their homes and their gas appliances are serviced once a year."

If people suspect carbon Monoxide is in their home they should open doors and windows to vent the property and clear the air, turn off gas appliances and contact their gas supplier."

Carbon Monoxide is known as the Silent Killer. You can't see it, taste it or smell it and it can kill quickly with no warning. A level of 380 CO parts per million can cause headaches and dizziness as the body is poisoned.

The six main symptoms of carbon monoxide poisoning are: headaches, dizziness, nausea, breathlessness, collapse and loss of consciousness.

Pensioner Sheila Marsh meets horse Bronwen on her hospital deathbed

Sheila's final meeting with beloved horse

By GREG FARRIMOND
greg.farrimond@jpress.co.uk
@GFarrimondWIG

It is the picture that touched the world.

She died aged 77 shortly before this photograph, released with the blessing of her family, went viral after being circulated by the hospital on Twitter and Facebook.

Devoted animal lover Mrs Marsh worked at Haydock Park Racecourse for most of her adult life.

But the poignant encounter wouldn't have been possible without the efforts of nurses at the hospital where she passed away. Staff arranged for Bronwen to be brought to the hospital's car park from the family's Bickerstaffe farm before wheeling Mrs Marsh out to the car park for the reunion.

Bronwen trotted over to her mistress and gave her one final kiss as emotional family, friend and staff looked on.

Days earlier staff had helped make Mrs Marsh's final moments a little lighter by bringing her pet dog Paddy to the ward for a visit.

And her daughter Tina

Sheila Marsh on Bronwen.

Marsh, 33, has told of the family's gratitude to staff for helping make her dying wishes come true.

"They were absolutely fantastic with my mum," she said. "They couldn't do any more to try and help her and help me and the family - they really were brilliant. I really can't speak highly enough of them. She had a really special relationship with Bronwen. She had her for about 18 or 19 years from Bronwen being seven. It was so touching for us all, it meant a lot to us. She hadn't seen them for two weeks. The dog and the horse were really pining for her so it's closure for them as well - when they both came home they were a bit perkier."

Mrs Marsh had always been an animal lover, owning several horses and dogs and cats. Many of the animals will now be cared for by Tina.

She also brought comfort to her mother in her final days by reuniting with her estranged father.

Tina said: "Mum loved her horse with everything she had." "Her other wishes were to see Paddy, whom she had owned for 13, and to see me and my father speaking again, because we hadn't spoken for years."

"My mum and dad are separated. My dad is married to someone else now and she has horses too but they used to get on with my mum, they were best mates. Mum was a very hard working woman, she never stopped. No matter what people asked her, she'd do anything for anybody. All the comments I get was that she was a legend and one in a million. She adored all animals, no matter what. We'll all really miss her so much."

Staff at Wigan Infirmary

who helped facilitate the meeting spoke of their emotions of being part of the special reunion between Mrs Marsh and Bronwen.

There was barely a dry eye on the car park as the two said their goodbyes. It was largely down to Gail Taylor, who recently took up a newly-created post at the Infirmary as a Bereavement Liaison Specialist Nurse. She said: "End of Life care with our patients is paramount and fundamental to what we do. We put our patients and family at the centre of everything we do, especially in their last days and hours of life."

"We listened and acted on Sheila Marsh's last wishes."

"Her dog was allowed into the ward to say a last goodbye and spent a happy hour on a special blanket curled up next to Sheila."

"The horse, Bronwen, walked steadily towards Sheila. Sheila gently called to Bronwen and the horse bent down tenderly and kissed her on the cheek as they said their last goodbyes. We have captured many pictures of this special moment to be collated into a commemorative photo album which we will present to Tina and family. Capturing keepsake mementos can help with the grief journey which we all experience after the death of a loved one."

Massive cocaine haul found in Parr caravan

Police in St Helens seized a huge haul of cocaine and over £200,000 in cash from a caravan in Parr.

The haul follows a raid last week at an address in Fleet Lane during which 35kg of high purity cocaine was seized.

At the same time, 10 premises in Hampshire were searched resulting in a further 10kgs of cocaine, MDMA, amphetamine, cannabis and more cash seized.

Six men and a woman have already been charged with drugs conspiracy offences and appeared at Portsmouth Magistrates Court on Wednesday (November 5).

Lancashire's SOCU have been working with Hampshire Police over a number of months investigating the supply of cocaine across England, particularly Skelmersdale, Lancashire, Merseyside and Hampshire.

Meanwhile a man was being quizzed by detectives today after his arrest in connection with Lancashire's biggest ever drugs haul.

The Orrell 34-year-old was one of three people detained in pre-dawn raids yesterday by officers who had earlier made an £11m cocaine seizure.

Officers from Lancashire Constabulary's Serious and Organised Crime Unit (SOCU), executed search warrants at addresses in both Wigan and Aughton, Ormskirk. and raids were also carried out at residential premises on Orrell Road, Wigan and Cole Crescent, Aughton.

The Orrell man, along with a man and woman, both aged 33 and from Aughton, were arrested on suspicion of supplying cocaine in the Skelmersdale area and money laundering and are currently in police custody.

Det Insp Martin Kane, of Lancashire Constabulary's Serious and Organised Crime Unit, said: "This morning's raids are part of on-going investigation into the supply of cocaine into the Skelmersdale area of Lancashire following warrants executed in the Merseyside area last week where we recovered 35kgs of high purity cocaine and over £200,000 in cash."

"During our investigation we have uncovered a large scale cocaine supply network between Lancashire, Merseyside and the South Coast and we are working in partnership with Hampshire Police."

COMMENT

Council leader

Barrie
Grunewald*Fitting salute to VC heroes

With Remembrance Sunday still fresh in our minds – and what an amazing turn-out we had – it's fitting that we've been able to announce details of a lasting tribute to some of the borough's First World War heroes.

It's particularly poignant that this year – the centenary of the start of the war – we've been able to confirm that our four Victoria Cross recipients are to have new roads named after them.

The names of Norman Harvey, John (Jack) Molyneux, John Thomas Davies and Frederick William Hall will live on and remind current and future generations of the sacrifice they – and their comrades – made in the service of our country.

While I'm on the subject I would like to thank all those organisations and individuals who have worked so hard this year to mark the centenary with an amazing range of events. Their efforts have helped to ensure that we will never forget.

Christmas isn't quite here yet – but it is getting to the time when many of us start planning our Christmas meal out with friends, family or colleagues.

There's no shortage of great restaurants in St Helens, but this year our colleagues in the council's Environmental Health department are asking everyone to check something else apart from the menu and the ambience.

We're talking about hygiene – and it's something that's really easy to look into. You can't tell a restaurant's hygiene standards by how clean and tidy the staff look or by how busy it is. But you can tell by its food hygiene rating.

Ratings at restaurants and food businesses across the country are determined by local authority food safety officers and run from 0-5 – with a five rating meaning a very good level of food hygiene.

Ninety three per cent of food businesses are rated three or better, so there are plenty of places with good standards – and you can easily avoid taking your family to those not meeting the grade. If you don't see a green and black sticker in the window or you spot a low rating online, you can make a better informed choice.

You can also check online by going to the Food Standards Agency website: www.food.gov.uk/ratings.

'Their names will live on to remind us of their great sacrifices'

I'm sure everyone has noticed, temperatures are starting to drop.

And unpleasant as this is, for most of us it isn't a problem. But for many – the frail and the elderly – it can be a killer.

Across the UK during 2012-13 there were an estimated 31,100 extra deaths over the winter period.

Staying snug and cosy in your home will help protect your health – while being too cold can cause serious problems for your breathing if you have a bad chest. Sitting for long periods in a cold home can put pressure on your heart and blood circulation too – leading to serious problems such as heart attacks and strokes.

To help vulnerable residents, we're distributing 5,000 winter survival packs in December through local libraries. Each pack includes a hat, scarf, thermal mug, torch, hot chocolate and calendar with essential information.

We're also asking all our residents to keep an eye on their elderly and frail neighbours and relatives – so please do all you can to ensure they are warm and comfortable.

Refurb for community halls

By ANDREW NOWELL
andrew.nowell@jpress.co.uk
@ANowellWVG

Community groups are settling into their newly-improved surroundings after a popular venue was refurbished.

The two halls at Bispham Methodist Church in Billinge received a comprehensive spruce-up after parishioners and local organisations raised almost £14,000 for repairs and improvements.

Both the main and primary halls at the Crank Road venue received new double glazing and fire doors, while around 40 corner protectors were added to the internal pillars.

New carpet tiles were also laid after a donation by local business Miliken, while two sections of dangerous crazy paving immediately in front of the church have also been replaced with asphalt.

'All can look forward to a much safer and warmer winter'

The church's halls are something of a lifeline for the Billinge community, regularly used by groups including Slimming World classes, the local branch of the University of the Third Age (U3A), a Tai Chi organisation and children's dance schools.

Local councillors also host ward surgeries there while Bispham Methodist Church runs a popular fortnightly Take A Break session for people at risk of social isolation.

Church member Alan Roby said: "Thanks to the fund-raising efforts of church members

The new surroundings at Bispham Methodist Church's community halls and through the generosity of individuals and organisations all those using the premises can look forward to a much safer and warmer winter in pleasant surroundings."

Tradesmen including Orrell Windows were joined by volunteers from the church and Bispham Scouts troop, one of several Scouting groups which meets in the halls each week, to carry out the work.

The generosity of the response to the church's fund-raising drive means the refurbishment has been completed well ahead of schedule.

The historic church was built in 1845 from local stone and has hosted worship for almost 170 years..

Cop shop showdown

A public meeting is to be held over proposals to close the Dane Court Cop Shop in Rainhill.

Rainhill Parish Council has organised the meeting, which will be attended by Merseyside's Police and Crime Commissioner.

The meeting will take place at 6pm on Thursday (November 13) at St Ann's Millennium Centre, View Road, Rainhill. Everyone is encouraged to attend and make their views known.

Residents warned after huge fire at warehouse

Neighbours were warned to keep their doors and windows shut following a massive warehouse blaze in St Helens.

Emergency crews were called to a giant single-storey recycling unit on Merton Street shortly before 5.15am last Wednesday (November 5).

Four fire appliances were initially sent to the scene, before two more were requested at 7am due to the severity of the blaze.

Firefighters remained at the scene for more than 24 hours and were still using two main hose jets to tackle the flames some 18 hours after the initial call-out.

Damping down operations continued well into the following day and about 100 tonnes of materials were excavated at the site.

District manager Chris Case said: "Firefighters worked with the Environment Agency, St Helens Council and United Utilities around the clock but the seat of the fire was difficult to reach and tonnes of recyclable materials had to be moved in order for firefighters to gain access to the area.

"We also had to make sure we had enough water supplies to the area to tackle the fire and a High Volume Pump was at the scene on November 5. It was a difficult operation but we extinguished the fire as quickly as we could."

A St Helens shopping centre in St Helens won a double gold standard prize for the precinct's toilets!

Now they're hoping to pick up a national title at the industry's "Oscars" – Loo of the Year 2014 – following a £60,000 investment to ensure shoppers can spend a penny in style.

Judges from the British Toilet Association decided to hand the gold medals to Church Square Shopping Centre for its facilities – both in St Mary's Arcade and Lagrange Arcade.

The BTA inspectors made unannounced visits to check everything from how clean the facilities were, through to spare loo rolls and enough soap.

Other criteria included plenty of signs to point the way for shoppers, enough cubicles, at least two types of hand dryers, disabled facilities and baby changing areas plus cubicles suitable for children.

Church Square manager Steve Brogan said: "This is a real vote of confidence for our staff, who work hard every day to make sure that the loos are kept clean and tidy, just like the rest of the precinct."

"We know our shoppers value having excellent, safe toilet facilities and baby changing areas that are easy to reach."

The centre is now up for the national title at the BTA's Loo Of The Year Awards next month. Britain's Got Talent comedian Kev Orkian, who has performed for both Prince Charles and Prince Philip, will be handing out the prizes at the ceremony in Solihull on

A Word from our sponsor

When OFSTED inspectors last visited Carmel College they judged the College "outstanding in all aspects of its provision". They praised the achievements of the students, the quality of teaching and learning and the support that we provide. Every year we see our young men and women enjoying fantastic success in exams. This year the College was listed by the Telegraph and the Times as one of the top ten sixth form colleges in the country. We also see first class sports men and women, performers, musicians and young people who make a real difference to their communities. We firmly believe that the people of this part of the world are immensely talented individuals and have a great deal to offer. We are fortunate in being able to build on the hard work of pupils and staff, teaching and support, in high schools and primary schools. So Carmel College is delighted to sponsor these Education Awards. I think it is really important that we celebrate the success of all that is good in education: the achievements of pupils and students as well as those of staff. I am looking forward to hearing about the successes of our colleagues and their pupils and students. These people make a real difference to the lives of others.

PRIMARY PUPIL OF THE YEAR

Sponsored by Smyths Toys

Aidan has overcome many challenges in his life which would be struggle for most adults to deal with, let alone a 10 year old. The hardships which he has encountered are not an indication of his achievement. However the way in which he does not allow them to influence his attitude, behaviour or use of the Christian Values is. This shows that Aidan is a child of great strength, self-control and courage.

Clark Doyle, Thatto Heath Primary School

Clark was diagnosed with Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy in 2011, but this has not held him back and he has written a science fiction film script. Courtesy of the Make a Wish charity, Clark travelled to London with his family to film his own movie which starred Hand Tongue Frog, made specially for him by Jim Henson of Muppets fame. Following that, Clark attended a red carpet premiere of the film in St Helens. The experience has really boosted his self confidence and he is so pleased to have accomplished something so special. It has inspired him to Stay involved in acting and continue creating stories.

Sponsored by Smyths Toys Superstores, the leading toy retailer is very proud to sponsor the 'Pupil of the Year - Primary school category. The award is aimed at recognising a pupil who not only has made an outstanding contribution academically or otherwise but is also a positive influence on other students, is approachable by staff and pupils alike and is happy to get involved in activities for the school.

SECONDARY SCHOOL PUPIL OF THE YEAR AWARD

Sponsored by St Helens Reporter

Harrison Ledsham, Haydock High School

Harrison has had a very challenging start to his secondary school education. He was diagnosed with bone cancer and unfortunately had to have his leg amputated during the summer. He has shown incredible strength and courage and even asked for school work to be sent home for him to do in hospital. He has amazed teachers and pupils as he is such a happy, smiley, conscientious student and has coped extremely well with the massive changes to his Life with such determination. The medical profession are impressed with how well he has adapted to his prosthetic leg and he is hoping to return to a normal lifestyle as soon as possible and continue being the model pupil he is.

EDUCATIONAL TOURS AWARD

Sponsored by WST Travel

Rainhill High School – Educational Tours

Rainhill High School prides itself in offering excellent enrichment opportunities for its students with a plethora of trips and activities. This year, the PE department took 42 children to Austria for the annual ski trip, a hugely enjoyable experience. The History department took 54 year 8 pupils to the battlefields sites in Belgium and Northern France. They visited The Menin Gate, a monument to the soldiers whose bodies were never recovered bearing the names of 54,896 soldiers who fought in World War One and students laid a wreath to remember their courage and the sacrifice they made by giving their lives in the Great War.

Students performing in this year's Les Miserables production took part in a trip to London and the dance department also visited London enabling students to perform at the Royal Ballet School in Covent Garden.

Cowley International College

In June our Year 8 pupils went on the annual residential activities trip to Quinta Hall. This year 164 staff, helpers and students went on the trip making it the biggest trip ever to date. A packed programme saw students taking part in fun activities including low ropes, climbing trees, rafting, slacklining, orienteering, pool, arts and crafts, dance and drama. There were quizzes, football matches and a group walk to the Tunnel of Doom, a long, dark canal tunnel, which was very scary.

Everybody had a great time and faced their own challenges. This reflected the character, teamwork and spirit of the trip with the students being a credit to the school. We look to build on this year's trip and make next year's even bigger and better.

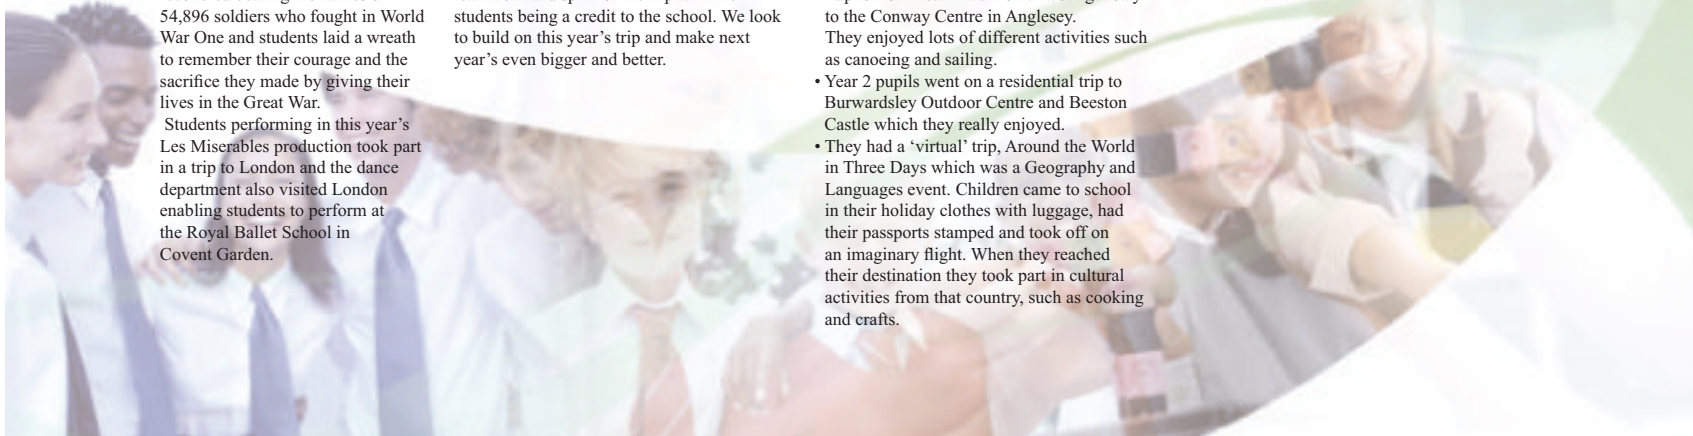

Rainford CE Primary School

Rainford CE Primary School organise lots of trips and events outside school for all the year groups to take part in, including:

- All junior children went to a free screening at the local cinema of the Ten Pieces project, which is trying to get young children interested in classical music.
- Children from years 5 and 6 saw a performance of Peter Pan at the Liverpool Empire.
- Year 6 students had a great day out at Alton Towers which was a reward for all the hard work they had put in during the year.
- Pupils from Year 4 went on a two night stay to the Conway Centre in Anglesey. They enjoyed lots of different activities such as canoeing and sailing.
- Year 2 pupils went on a residential trip to Burwardsley Outdoor Centre and Beeston Castle which they really enjoyed.
- They had a 'virtual' trip, Around the World in Three Days which was a Geography and Languages event. Children came to school in their holiday clothes with luggage, had their passports stamped and took off on an imaginary flight. When they reached their destination they took part in cultural activities from that country, such as cooking and crafts.

WST is an educational tour operator, based in Blackpool. Our destinations range from the UK and Europe to the USA. WST is about helping teachers to take students on great trips and have fun whilst doing so. We provide a tailor made experience with exceptional customer service from beginning to end.

Rentals firm expands as market gathers pace

After an unprecedented quarter of growth, Cosey Rentals, St Helens have increased the size of their team and almost doubled their property portfolio.

A takeover of Hyland lettings has resulted in the Duke Street office becoming a bustling hub of activity, reflecting the company's popularity in the area.

As one of the more established agents in St Helens, Cosey Rentals are proud of the success they have enjoyed over the years, but with the recent surge in the rentals market they saw an opportunity to expand their operations.

As the property market improves the company have decided to put a long-awaited plan of growth into action. In June they made a move for Hyland lettings and took over their portfolio.

The buyout went very well with managing director Mike Cosy commenting: "Many of our newly acquired landlords have expressed their happiness with us as their new property managers.

"It's nice to know that they are aware of how much emphasis we place on customer service."

Now, with a much bigger property portfolio the team has grown. New additions include lettings Administrator Mica who joined this year to deal with the extra demand in the lettings department; and Shaun, coming in to fill a newly created role as Marketing Manager reflecting the intent of the company to continue their growth.

Branch Manager Peter spoke about the recent success of the firm, saying: "It's a really exciting time to be a part of Cosey Rentals, as we take on more properties and create relationships with more landlords, our growth seems to be accelerating, it's great and we really hope it continues."

"With a larger range of properties to let we now have something for everybody and can place tenants in their desired homes much easier."

If you are looking for a property to rent or you are a landlord wishing to let, Cosey Rentals' showroom is based on Duke Street.

The team are always there to meet you with a warm and friendly welcome.

It's Got It All! This exclusive detached home towards the outskirts of St. Helens has, as you might expect, four bedrooms, but then there are some real treats. For example the master bedroom has a full length balcony with elevated views across a lovely garden. The lounge, sitting and dining rooms are at the rear and create the feeling of two spaces just as easily merged into one! Of course there is a functioning garage and a spacious kitchen to mention. We think you should go and check this against your wish list. D59

Sandfield Crescent, Whiston £285,000

Quiston Grange is a select development of high quality homes. The WREN has been designed with the family in mind with four bedrooms, but the American style kitchen and dining area at the rear of the property is an ideal place to entertain. A three storey property is becoming more and more popular, in this instance the entire top floor is designed to accommodate parents who need their own space, the en-suite may be spacious but the master bedroom is CAPACIOUS – the choice of how you utilise it is yours, flexibility is key, masses of wardrobe space, plenty of room for a train set, or finally the home your shoe collection deserves! C80

Hoveton Gardens, Lea Green £285,000

The exceptional! This example of a modern five bedroom detached house is certainly far above standard. There are three bathrooms to go with the number of bedrooms. And for "top of the pops" there is a built in sound system integrated into the building. Externally the property has an enclosed rear garden and a double garage with remote control doors. C74

Park Road South, N-I-W £249,995

What a Spread! This substantial detached bungalow has masses of accommodation. With five bedrooms and two bathrooms the property is ideally placed to house a family, hiding the kids away in several of the spacious rooms. The situation of the property means it is set back from the road with a large driveway, which leads of course to the garage. All of the rooms, be it living, kitchen or bedrooms are on the larger side, as we said, everything is spread out. D58

Barrowfield Road, Eccleston £215,000

All of the right extras! As a semi-detached house is a popular part of St Helens this property has been extended to create both an extra bedroom and some extra living space. Many of the rooms have been decorated tastefully to create a modern feel about the place. With this combination of room and location you are sure to buy a winner. C65

Kingfisher Drive, Haresfinch £189,995

A Delectable Detached Delight! A really nice example of a three bedroom modern detached house. There is a conservatory to the rear overlooking the enclosed well tended garden. The kitchen space is large and functional and along with the bathrooms finished to a high standard. All in all this is a great family home. E54

Anemone Way, New Bold £189,995

Pretty and Colourful Flower! Located on Anemone Way (which is no doubt named after the flower) this nice example of a three bedroom detached house is also worthy of an admiring glance or two. With modern extras such as an en-suite shower room and an integral garage it is placed to make a great family home. C69

Berkeley Court, N-I-W £185,000

Massive Cornering On Offer! This four bedroom detached bungalow is set on a corner plot within this select development of similar style properties. As you would imagine the ground floor accommodation lends itself to a family but at the same time various rooms can be used for various things. There is a large breakfast kitchen to support the family ideal. Large grounds and a double garage complete the picture. C72

Womack Gardens, Lea Green £177,500

Different! How you may ask, well the property is uniquely tucked away on this modern development, there is open land to the side, then there are the three or four bedrooms (depends on you that one), then the balcony adds to the uniqueness. Internally the property has some nice modern touches. You really do need to take a look. C75

Breccia Gardens, Parr £165,000

A detached delight! As modern detached houses go this four bedroom example is delightful. The dining kitchen is worthy of particular mention being both spacious and well equipped. The integral garage again makes for even more useful space. C76

Womack Gardens, Lea Green £165,000

A fantastically presented and maintained three bed end town house, situated on a sought after development in St Helens. The property benefits from three spacious bedrooms (additional bedroom on ground floor, currently being used as a family room) and balcony of the living room. This really is a must see property to appreciate the living space in this great example of a town house! C79

Spinners Drive, Rolling Mill £149,995

Home Spun Home! Situated on Spinners Drive this modern detached house is tailor-made as a family home. There are three bedrooms, two bathrooms plus en-suite, two reception rooms and a family size garden. The front lounge is at the larger end of the scale. The estate is proving to be a popular place to live so now is your chance. EPC C70

Marylebone Avenue, Lea Green £149,950

So what are you going to do with the garden? This three bedroom semi detached house has far more than its fair share of land. Add to this the modern fixtures and fittings found inside the property and you have something well worth viewing. E46

EDUCATION AWARDS

SUSTAINABLE SCHOOL AWARD

Sponsored by Pilkington NSG Group

Hope Academy

Sustainable Development and Sustainability are at the heart of Hope Academy, as is our role in helping young people to develop the skills, conceptual understanding and attitudes to share and develop their knowledge about this subject. In addition, Students have "hands-on" involvement in local environmental and regeneration projects and engage both with the local community and, through faith links, with the developing world, in projects to improve quality of life for others.

Cowley International College

Three Cowley Students – Cherrie Cummings, Owen Hudson-Unsworth and Olivia Mason-Lawler took part in a national Eco competition to design a product to reduce the amount of plastic waste. The Students designed toy packaging that was 100% recyclable. The awards ceremony was held at the Houses of Parliament and the students were taken for a tour and were lucky enough to go into the House of Parliament chambers. All students had to present their ideas to a panel of judges which included MPs and experts in the industry.

Bleak Hill Primary School

Bleak Hill Primary pupils take great pleasure in planting lots of flowers and vegetables with lots of loving care. Bleak Hill Primary have achieved levels 1 to 5 in the Royal Horticultural Society Campaign for School gardening. To obtain each level the children had to submit evidence and meet the criteria required to receive such a great award. The school is being awarded a Gold Plaque for proving an outstanding example of a school garden that is seen as a key resource for teaching and learning across the National Curriculum and is also used as a resource for lifelong learning by the wider community.

PILKINGTON

We operate in three business sectors: Architectural, supplying glass for the world's building and for solar energy applications; Automotive, producing glass and glazing systems for vehicles worldwide; and Technical Glass, operating in the display office equipment and glass fibre sectors. We are committed to Sustainability. We supply high-quality glass products that make an important contribution to improving living standards, to people's safety and well-being and to energy conservation and generation, working safely and ethically.

SPORTS ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Sponsored by Everton Football Academy

Sutton Academy

I would like to nominate the special players who make up Sutton Year 11 Rugby League team. This team are skilful individual athletes with excellent team spirit and commitment which has led to their outstanding success. They have won the St Helens Secondary Schools Rugby League Cup every year since Year 7, taking home the Alex Murphy Cup, and are undefeated in this competition making them the most successful school team in recent history. I feel privileged to be involved with this team.

Grange Valley Primary School

Grange Valley Girls took a trip out of school to be coached by England cricket stars Charlotte Edwards and Danielle Hazel. The opportunity became available through the 'Chance to Shine Ambassadors Programme'. Interest in cricket at Grange Valley has grown immensely over the past twelve months with more children than ever wanting to be involved. Chris Chambers from Lancashire Cricket Board has worked hard and long with the school staff to increase children's confidence in the sport and develop their skills.

Nathan Sheron & Josh Eaves

St Augustine of Canterbury Catholic High School
Two outstanding sportsmen from St Augustine's: Nathan recently signed a 2 year contract with Liverpool FC. Nathan is the school's sports captain. Despite all of these commitments Nathan has remained focused and on track with achieving eleven excellent GCSE's.

Nathan's exemplary attitude and modesty is what makes his achievements more impressive. Josh recently won St Helens RLFC Young Scholar of the year for his outstanding season at under 16 level. He is totally committed to school and town Rugby. Josh has achieved all this whilst juggling his academic commitments and being the school's Head Boy.

Everton Football Academy is proud to sponsor the St. Helens Education Awards 2014. Given our commitment to supporting aspiring young footballers, it is a real honour that we have the opportunity to support the Sports Achievement Award category this year.

Not only do we place great emphasis upon developing talented young athletes, but alongside this has been an ongoing desire to educate.

Education plays a massive part in all our Academy programmes from the very youngest of our boys, right up to and including members of the 1st team squad.

Many of our most talented Academy graduates have gained impressive qualifications whilst with us. Moreover, a significant number continue to develop their own academic attainment through further and more advanced levels of study.

We sincerely hope that the recipient of tonight's Sports Achievement Award can continue to combine undoubted sporting prowess with a thirst for 'lifelong learning'.

CAREER ASPIRATION AWARD

Sponsored by St Helens Chamber

Haydock High School

The school organised a Y11 "Inspiration Evening" with over 20 KS5 providers attending to provide students and their families with the opportunity to see what courses are on offer at the various colleges and to ensure that students had the best opportunity to gather information about courses, careers and the qualifications required to get into their chosen field. This opportunity was invaluable for assisting students to make the right informed choice for them and to inspire them for their upcoming GCSE exams. The school is committed to every Year 11 student having a one to one mentor. The mentor provides Inspiration and Aspiration to assist with setting targets and working towards their goals and reaching full potential.

Rainhill High School

Rainhill High School holds an annual Careers Convention designed to support students in their journey through options and making future career choices. This year, Neil Clough from TV'S The Apprentice led an inspirational assembly, following which, pupils took part in a range of workshops participating in decision making activities and finding out about the future job market. The school also has a Careers Wizard section on their website giving students the opportunity to select from their favourite subjects in school to see their potential career possibilities. Rainhill also work with the Connexions Career Connect service, a social enterprise that empowers youngsters to make effective decisions about future employment and study.

St Augustine of Canterbury Catholic High School

The Year 9 Gifted and Talented Group visited Carmel College in June to participate in a number of taster workshops, to hear about possible careers and to have a tour of the college. "As a group, we took part in a range of sessions including: maths and science; modern foreign languages; English literature, language and media studies; law, history and politics; business economics and computing and art. It was a very enjoyable day which gave us a real insight into college life at Carmel and the possible subjects that we might want to study in the future".

St Helens Chamber

St Helens Chamber is dedicated to helping and inspiring the young people of the Borough through a range of employment opportunities with local businesses; education and training and support for young people. The students of St Helens have the potential to achieve great things and drive forward the future development of the Borough. We are sponsoring the Career Aspiration Award category as it encompasses a lot of what the Chamber believes in. We look forward to hearing about all the young people and schools who have developed an understanding of the different career pathways and opportunities open to them, and being able to present this accolade to one of them on the night.

HEALTH AND WELLBEING AWARD

Sponsored by Junior Chef's Academy

Haydock High School

Haydock High School is committed to the health and wellbeing of staff, pupils and people in the wider community. This is demonstrated by various initiatives: Bike Project, this is to encourage more children to ride to school and help increase physical fitness. Fitness Room – this has a wide range of equipment where pupils are taught to use the equipment correctly and to improve their fitness. The school is also involved in the "Fruits On Desk" scheme which is a council initiative. Health and Wellbeing workshops look at the issues of alcohol, sunbeds, nutrition and drugs.

Thatto Heath Community Primary School

Thatto Heath Community Primary School are committed to PSHCE, which means personal, social, health and citizenship economic education. This includes opportunities provided by the core and foundation subjects of the National Curriculum. The pupils know and understand what constitutes a healthy lifestyle, and are aware of safety issues. They understand what makes a good relationship with others and strive to develop self-confidence and self esteem. They work to develop good relationships with other members of the school and the wider community.

Grange Valley Primary School

Grange Valley now has a strong sense of community working with our partners in the local community. This was demonstrated by the support the school has given to the British Heart Foundation. One of the little girls in school was diagnosed with a heart defect and as a school we thought it was essential that we raised awareness about keeping our hearts healthy. We also set about raising money to purchase a defibrillator for school and our local community. To raise money we held a sponsored dance for all children at school and then followed this with a skipping challenge in conjunction with The British Heart Foundation. We raised enough money to purchase a defibrillator!

Junior Chef's Academy is all about helping young people to make smarter choices about healthy eating by making food education fun, which is why we are pleased to sponsor the Health and Wellbeing Award. Junior Chef's Academy is a leading provider of healthy eating workshops and food education events. We work with hundreds of schools across the UK, encouraging children from nursery age to year six to develop an active interest in how food is produced and prepared. We're experienced, innovative and professional but, above all, we're passionate about delivering the healthy eating message in ways that are both memorable and fun.

INSPIRATIONAL TEACHING AWARD

Sponsored by Carmel College

Amanda Clark, Sutton Oak Primary School
St Helens teacher Amanda Clark climbed Africa's highest peak Mount Kilimanjaro inspiring her pupils to walk in her footsteps – without leaving the school grounds. Amanda was moved by the Oliver King Foundation which is a charity set up to commemorate a 12 year old boy who died from an undiagnosed heart condition. On her return, youngsters at Sutton Oak Primary decided they wanted to help the foundation and raise cash to buy a heart defibrillator for their school. They walked their field of 5,895 metres the height of Kilimanjaro and raised £3,500.

Miss J Lane, Haydock High School
During staff changes Miss Lane ran classes for GCSE & KS3 students and achieved her best GCSE results ever. She always goes the extra mile and is a fantastic teacher, practitioner, mentor and Head of Department. Her dedication to her students, to English and to the school are exemplary! An enthusiastic and tenacious teacher!

Mr Rimmer, Nutgrove Primary School
Mr Rimmer is a great leader and is very much a part of school life for all the children. He is involved with every part of the children's school day whether it be assembly, teaching a class, midday supervisor. Mr Rimmer doesn't sit in his office all day everyday he gets involved with the children's learning journeys as well as the staff's. We are always thanked for our work and we are involved in the latest training. This is down to OUTSTANDING leadership And that is exactly what we got for our OFSTED report this year.

Teachers have a tremendous impact on the lives of the young people in their classes. I am sure everyone can remember at least one teacher who made a real difference to their lives: someone who had the ability to inspire and enthuse students with a love of learning, someone who made them believe they could achieve. In my career I have been lucky to work with many people like this. This category recognises the achievements of the many teachers who are talented, work extremely hard and are completely dedicated to those in their care.

PRIMARY SCHOOL OF THE YEAR AWARD

Grange Valley Primary School

During the past 18 months Grange Valley has gone through strength to strength, we work hard to ensure we are addressing our children's spiritual, moral, social and cultural education in all we do along with developing children's social, emotional aspects of learning. These qualities and skills permeate through the curriculum helping to support children to manage life and learning effectively. Grange Valley believe this is vitally important because these skills help our children to get on with other people and also support them to become responsible citizens.

Legh Vale Primary School

Since 1974 Legh Vale Primary School has gone from a seed to a 'fully grown tree'. At the heart of the community the school offers a stimulating learning environment, rich in resources, and special, talented staff. The school is an outstanding learning platform for all its students. It celebrates its 40th birthday soon, and is to commemorate the occasion with a special nostalgic 'look back in time' event for all the community past and present. A dedicated team of professionals complements the staff who not only teach academic areas, but cover extra curricular areas as sport, health and wellbeing.

Nutgrove Primary School

Nutgrove Primary School have made incredible progress and were awarded an Outstanding OFSTED report! The staff are always helpful and nothing is ever too much trouble for them. We are always well informed of any events at school even to the point of having a yearly school planner. Even the kitchen has a hygiene award of 5 stars. What an amazing place for the children that attend this school.

Arnold Clark is delighted to be this year's sponsor of the Primary School of the Year category. Educating younger generations is hugely important to developing and nurturing local communities and Arnold Clark is honoured to be helping to recognise the inspirational work that schools do on a daily basis. We hope that this award cultivates a hunger to continue this great work and strive to be the best within the community.

SECONDARY SCHOOL OF THE YEAR AWARD

Sponsored By University Of Liverpool

Haydock High School

Haydock High School is at the heart of the community. It strives to achieve the very best with each and every individual in the school. It has maintained its academic progress over 4 years and like any family it cares about its members. The school has many positive connections with the community and is very keen to partner with other agencies to enhance the community.

Rainhill High School

Rainhill High's ethos is Reach for the Sky @ Rainhill High and these words, chosen by the students, epitomises their ambitions. The students are at the heart of everything they do and they are nurtured to be the best they can be. SSAT (Specialist Schools Association Trust) have awarded Rainhill High School for being in the top 20% of schools nationally. This is for value added between arrival from Primary School to GCSE results and these results are testament to the commitment and hard work of the students, teachers and leadership team at Rainhill High School. Rainhill's GCSE Performance was 11% above national average, an improvement from 6% the previous year. 'A' level value added was also as good as ever, producing some of the best results locally and nationally. Rainhill's 'A' levels are in the top 15% nationally, with Applied Science BTEC L3 being the very best in the country.

UNSUNG HERO AWARD

Sponsored by Tesco Extra

Sandra Dixon, Haydock High School

Sandra has been dedicated to the school for over 26 years she is one of the support staff and is always friendly and supportive when working with the children in their art or cookery lessons. She is a wonderful support to the staff in those departments always going the extra mile. She connects our school with the community we live in and nothing is ever too much trouble. Sandra is always at the forefront of the hospitality being provided by the school. Her sunny personality shines through whatever task she is doing. Sandra makes things happen and she looks for ways to make things better and always does it with a smile.

The Sutton Academy

The Sutton Academy – Dream Team - Last year a small group of Year 9 girls asked if they could get involved in some charity work. When asked why they wanted to do this they replied "we want to make people's dreams come true" and so The Dream Team was formed! The Dream Team helped organise the following events: A special raffle - top prize a signed Saints rugby shirt. A bag pack at a town centre supermarket. A sponsored zumbathon for Year 7 pupils. A bucket collection at a town centre supermarket. A non-uniform day. The result of their efforts The Dream Team have donated the following amounts of money. £1500 to The Steve Prescott Foundation. £1000 to The Cystic Fibrosis Trust. £500 to Children in Need.

Sutton Oak Primary School

Pupils at Sutton Oak Primary School wanted to help the Oliver King Foundation a charity set up to commemorate a 12 year old boy who died from an undiagnosed heart condition. Inspired by their teacher Amanda Clarke who climbed Africa's highest peak Mount Kilimanjaro, the pupils walked 5,895 metres around their field (the height of Kilimanjaro) and raised £3,500 towards half of the purchase of a defibrillator.

Students of Haydock High School

Big-hearted students at Haydock High School were so inspired by Harrison Ledsham's courage, that they have thrown themselves into fund raising activities to help purchase a better prosthetic leg to enable him to enjoy his sport again once he is fit and able. Harrison's rugby team and other students have raised £5,500 to date and also put funds into a trust to ensure that he can have the prosthetic leg replaced with high quality ones in the future.

Tesco St Helens Extra are very happy to support the Unsung Hero award as they self and mystore feel that the little things anyone can do for those less fortunate than ourselves deserve recognition. As a store we have a number of Unsung Heroes who get involved in Charity Raising for Local events and our Farm To Fork Trials we do help with children's education / knowledge. We give recognition to this within the store to either an individual or a team. I do hope that the St Helens community embraces this opportunity to celebrate and show what a great town this is.

HOW TO VOTE Let us know who you think should be the winner of the Unsung Hero Award. Simply email the name of your favourite to competitions@lancspublications.co.uk to reach us by 9am Monday November 17th. Only one vote per respondent email address will be counted. Remembrance Sunday

St Helens remembers ...

Victoria Square in St Helens was packed on Sunday morning for the annual Service of Remembrance.

Hundreds of serving soldiers, cadets, dignitaries, members of the public and veterans gathered for the event, which was all the more poignant as this year marks the 100th anniversary of the outbreak of World War I. For a full report of the service, see pages 8 and 9.

ROAD TEST - FORD MONDEO 2.0 TDCi 150

A6 finds the perfect recipe

THE recipe for a large saloon is simple, but pulling it off with confidence and luxury spilling from its every pore is harder.

You'd have to be in the inner circle of the Audi A6 fan club to spot the differences this facelift has made.

The visual nips and tucks are tiny, but there's important news at the bottom of the scale.

Entry-level SE models now come with LED daytime running lights and xenon headlights, so they look more premium.

It's just the 17-inch wheels that betray them.

But don't reach for the options list too quickly, because with the diddy alloys attached the 2.0 TDI 'ultra' A6 wades in with a paltry 109g/km of CO2 (thanks to the S tronic automatic gearbox). Company car drivers rejoice!

Upping the basic wheels to 18-inchers or larger does improve the looks, but it dents the fuel economy.

The choice is yours, or possibly your fleet manager's.

The A6 is still right up there as one of the most desirable large premium cars you can buy.

This tweaked model's features are that little bit tauter, better balanced and less dumpy than before (once you've looked at them side-by-side for a bit).

The devil is in the details.

You'll find acres of space for four or even five, with six-foot drivers leaving plenty of legroom behind them.

Newly-standard quad-zone climate control means everyone can set their own temperature – apart from Piggy in the Middle in the back.

Saloons and estates are available from the off, with the latter wearing their sleeker proportions and extra practicality like a mane of masculinity as they bask in their superior style and substance.

While the 2.0-litre diesel doesn't feel quite up to its quoted figures, it has punch enough.

Town's week of mixed fortunes

St Helens Town had mixed results this week but managed to add three vital points to their tally as their league campaign.

Tuesday saw St Helens Town take the trip to Stockport Sports Village to take on Stockport Sports and we again were able to assert our authority on the game and after dominating the opening exchanges it was no surprise when we took the lead midway through the first half.

It was nice to see skipper Andy Gillespie getting back on the score sheet for the first time since he netted here at Brocstedes Park against Nostell in the second qualifying round of the FA Vase at the beginning of October, his deft chip over the keeper was perfectly weighted after he latched onto a ball turned towards his own goal by a Stockport defender.

In the second half a triple change saw the hosts come at Town for the first 10 minutes after the restart but after we had weathered that particular storm normal service was resumed and Chad Whyte collected a through ball bore down on goal and his effort was blocked by the excellent Connor O'Keefe on his debut only for Marcus Perry to turn the loose ball home.

'Captain Andy Gillespie got himself back on the score sheet'

Saturday saw Town host form side Colne side at Brocstedes Park and the difference between the two sides was the clinical finishing from the visitors.

Colne broke the deadlock and while St Helens were able to stay in the game, the visitors had the best of the encounter and at one stage extended their lead to 5-1 before Town claimed a late consolation.

Park run success

St Helens parkrun was preceded by an an impeccably observed minutes silence to mark remembrance weekend.

One of their regular volunteers, Ian Roberts had also chosen his own personal way to remember his former colleagues in the forces, by relinquishing his usual barcode scanning station and running in full combat gear with a 45.3KG (100lbs) rucksack. Ian completed the course in 48.35 minutes after enjoying superb support from runners and volunteers around the course.

They also presented our first parkrun T-Shirts to Rachel Wilcock (10 runs) and Chris Falls (100 runs).

Despite the autumnal weather they have seen an increase in numbers over the last few weeks and Saturday was no exception. 170 is their highest participation level since the inaugural run (194).

Greg Carns produced a storming performance to dip under the three and a half hour mark

Runners take on epic marathon

ATHLETICS

Eight veterans from St Helens Sutton Athletics Club were among the 1,750 starters who ran the Snowdonia marathon.

This is a very tough course, climbing the Llanberis pass in the first five miles and then hitting the "Welsh Wall" of near vertical tarmac between miles 22 and 24 before a leg-destroying plunge back to Llanberis to be cheered to the finish by a very enthusiastic crowd.

Andy Wilson ran a perfectedly-paced race to finish in 3.14.05, Mark Liptrot was 40 seconds behind and third in the V50 category.

Greg Carns stormed home in 3.28.22, achieving a long held ambition to dip under three and a half hours.

Ian Hayburn was next to complete the monster course in 3.39.56. The ever-improving Sonya Monaghan beat four hours and some of her club male rivals to finish in the top ten in her age category with 3.53.41.

Jonny Ford had a storming first half but a stomach bug left him struggling but he still managed to finish in 4.26.02.

Bringing the club home was Tom Fitzpatrick in 5.32.20. Many put their excellent runs down to the structured and challenging training on club nights.

The club has a number of adult running groups from beginners to advanced and caters for a wide range of abilities and ambitions.

Due to other race commitments the club relied on its young women to step up and make sure the club finished a team in the first Liverpool and District Cross-country League match at Beacon Park course.

Saints sign lucrative new kit deal

Kitted out for champions

Fit for champions - that's Saints' view of the club's new home and away kit which was unveiled at the weekend.

The 2014 Super League and League Leaders' Shield winners will line up in gear supplied in association with O'Neill's Sportswear and are expecting a big demand in the run up to Christmas.

Traditional, with a modern twist, the home shirt features the prominent red vee as well as some fantastic detailing.

The away version with its sky blue body colour, black shoulders, and sky criss-cross details make it a cut above its Super League peers.

"We have engaged with fans and it was clear they preferred a deeper vee following on from four seasons of the wider but shallow vee," explained merchandising manager Steve Law.

Mr Law said: "Working with O'Neill's, we have produced a much more prominent, enhanced and deeper vee utilising the latest digital printing technology to add depth and texture to the red.

"Sky blue and black have been two of the most popular colours with fans on the away kit we have produced over the years, asking O'Neill's to develop gear which would feature both colours while ensuring it is modern, distinctive and retaining a vee that is synonymous with our club.

"The black speckled vee highlights this superbly and the players who modelled the shirt said it was one of the best they had seen.

"We are sure it will be equally as popular with the fans, too."

The strong links with existing sponsors is also reflected in the new kit.

Main backers, Ty-phoo, figure prominently on the front of the shirt as well as on the club's training wear.

clubs but, after speaking to chief executive Mike Rush and the then coach Nathan Brown, he felt St Helens was "the right place for me".

"Saints have a nice culture and environment and that attracted me to sign," said the 16st, 6ft-tall Australian-born forward, who had spells Down Under with Cronulla Sharks, Melbourne Storm and St George Illawarra.

It is a far cry from the days when Vea, as a youngster, was told his playing days could be over due to injury.

"It was my shoulder and my ankle and it put me out for a while," Vea recalled.

"I had to undergo surgery and it was 50-50 whether I could get them fixed or play on.

"Then the doctor took a look and said I'd never play again and told me to hang up my boots. That was quite scary and quite a reality check."

Fortunately, he was able to overcome that setback and is now looking forward to playing a major part in Saints' battle to retain their Super League crown and lift the Challenge Cup for the first time since 2008.

Wilkin's right: England must focus on skills deficit

It may be just wishful thinking but I firmly believe that had Saints' James Roby been in England's Four Nations squad they could now be looking forward to challenging the Australians in this week-end's final, instead of New Zealand.

Roby declared himself unfit for the tournament and his absence from Saturday's 16-14 defeat at the hands of the Kiwis stuck out like a sore thumb.

When fellow hooker Dar-yl Clark - the only recognised no.9 in coach Steve McNamara's 17-man squad - had to spend time on the bench either side of half-time it affected the inventiveness and creative skills of a side still clinging on to more than a 50-50 chance of overturning the world champions.

Had Roby been able to share the role of hooker with the 2014 Man of Steel, then the final outcome could have been turned on its head.

Or am I just clutching at straws?

It was also interesting to listen to the thoughts of Saints vice-captain and regular BBC pundit Jon Wilkin (pictured)

'With Roby on the field the final score could have been different'

on England's demise.

Unlike many leading lights in the 13-a-side, who felt England had done enough to suggest that the gap in skill and ability between themselves and both the Aussies and Kiwis had narrowed, Wilkin seemed a little sceptical and made a good point when hinting that the warmer climate in the southern hemisphere was more conducive to helping players develop their skills to a higher level than in the often rain-lashed and cold conditions of the north of England, forcing the players to sometimes train indoors rather than outside.

Christmas is just around the corner and any Saints' fans wanting the perfect yuletide gift need look no further than a special DVD reflecting last season's double trophy triumph.

The Super League 2014 - Grand Final and Season Review is a double DVD set which features four hours of highlights from a historic year.

Disc one is a full season review featuring highlights of the key games from the 27 rounds involving all 14 clubs and all the play-off games, alongside interviews with a number of players and coaches.

Disc two - Saints v Wigan Grand Final in full included Sky commentary and post match celebrations. Both run for approximately two hours and are priced at £14.99.

Just pop into the Saints Superstore to purchase your copy of what is likely to be the hottest selling Christmas gift in town.

Alternatively, log-on to the club's web site for details.

Flying winger Ade hangs up boots on stellar playing career

Gard-ing for a stronger finish

Ade Gardner hits the weights at Saints' training facility

A familiar face has joined Keiron Cunningham's backroom staff as Saints prepare for the defence of their Super League crown.

Ade Gardner, who played along side Cunningham at Knowsley Road between 2002 and 2010 when the club achieved unparalleled trophy success, will act as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

He will work with head of strength and conditioning, Matt Daniels, bringing down the curtain on a playing career in which he made more than 350 appearances for his home-town club, Barrow Raiders, St Helens and at representative level.

Cunningham said: "We are delighted to have Ade on board.

"He is a superb professional who will bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to a role built up over several years as a top level RL player.

"His work ethic is second to none and he has always been one of the best trainers at the club."

Gardner, who spent last season on loan at Hull KR, said: "I was going to retire at the end of 2015 but the club offered me this new role and it made sense to me.

"In the end it was the best decision for me and my family."

The 31-year-old ex-international winger added: "I am retiring with a heavy heart.

"I had 15 good seasons at the best club in the world and have fond memories not only here but with Barrow, Hull KR and Great Britain, too.

"But the opportunity to remain at this great club was too good to turn down.

"I am currently in the third year of a sports science degree at Loughborough University and this role will enable me to gain good insight and experience into this part of the game.

"I'd never say never about playing again but the focus for now is on this new role and I can't wait to get started."

■ Head physiotherapist Joey Hayes has left the club to focus on new ventures.

international was heading back to his former club when it was revealed on Twitter that he had left his coaching role with Salford.

Red Devils owner, Dr Marwan Koukash, took to social media to break the news, tweeting: "We have reluctantly agreed to Sean Long's request to leave the club with immediate effect. I personally feel very disappointed."

Rainford-based Dr Koukash later followed that tweet with a second which said: "He knows why he is leaving and I wish him all the best. We won't take him back again."

Long, who has also been working as an assistant to Matt Parish during Samoa's Four Nations campaign in Australia, was not available for comment but his management, TMSports, said it was time he moved on to "explore new opportunities".

During his Saints career, Long won every major team honour in the game at club level. He helped the club to four titles between 1999 and 2006 and five Challenge Cup triumphs between 2001 and 2008, as well as winning an unequalled three Lance Todd Trophy man of the match awards.

■ Saints returned to full training on Monday in preparation for the defence of their Super League title.

Most of the senior squad were present, apart from Mose Masoe who has been involved in the Four Nations and skipper Paul Wellens - part of the England coaching team Down Under.

New boy Atelea Vea trained at Saints for the first time this week - and is already counting down the days to the moment he gets to pull on the famous red vee shirt for the first time.

The 27-year-old Tongan international, who joined the club after a 12-month spell at the London Broncos, has big boots to fill too, following the departures of Sia Soliola and Wille Manu.

He said: "It's just great to be here and I am relishing the prospect of playing for one of the best known clubs in the world."

"I can't wait to make my debut in front of the Langtree Park crowd."

"I played at Saints last season and the crowd were great. It felt like somewhere I wanted to be."

Vea, who made 22 appearances for the Londoners last season - scoring two tries as they lost their battle against relegation - added: "I have completed my first

Sean Long could be on the brink of returning to the club where he enjoyed unprecedented success as a player.

The club is refusing to comment on speculation that the flamboyant former scrum-half is set to take on a coaching role at Langtree Park, but it is believed that newly-appointed boss Keiron Cunningham is keen to have his old team-mate on board.

If he returns, Long will also work alongside another familiar face in Ade Gardner who last week accepted a post at the club as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.
